

Harley Summer Theater Conservatory

Grades 8 - 12

The Harley Summer Theater Conservatory, led by Broadway star Tom Deckman, is a four-week immersive program designed for young performers ready to deepen their craft. Through daily training in acting, singing, and dancing, students will develop their skills under the guidance of a seasoned professional while experiencing the joy and discipline of a true theater intensive. Over the course of the program, participants collaborate, create, and grow in a supportive, high-energy environment—all leading to a fully staged final showcase where every student shines on stage.

July 13–August 7

Tuition: $1,200

Broadway Showcase

Grades 5-8

8am-3pm

$575

Students explore musical theater through acting, singing, and choreography inspired by Broadway productions. The camp culminates in a showcase performance that celebrates creativity and collaboration.

June 22 - June 26th

Summer Musical

Grades 3-8

8:00am-5:30pm

$650

Must commit to BOTH WEEKS

Students rehearse and perform James and the Giant Peach Jr. in a full musical production directed by Tom Deckman and Kristy Houston, building skills in acting, singing, dancing, and collaboration.

June 29 - July 10